Environment & Culture (who we are)

We are a team and fully support each other so that together we can accomplish more. We enjoy wit, humor, and comradery so working together is filled with laughter, however we are serious about working hard with everyone putting forth our best effort and paying attention to the details. If you are passionate about helping others and have a heart for reaching out, Ruth Harbor may be a good fit for you. Above all, we seek to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ through the way we work and interact.

Position (living into our mission / overview)

The House Parents literally live Ruth Harbor's mission statement and are key in developing resident character, entailing constant mentoring, role-modeling, advising, etc. House Parents daily serve, support, love and supervise young women, modeling a healthy, spiritual, and moral, marriage and home. The House Parents set and maintain healthy boundaries and loving relationships for residents ages 13-23 within a family environment. House Parents must be mission-minded and have a vision for life-change and positive transformation for each resident.

The House Parent Backup position is both challenging and rewarding, and reports directly to the House Parents, under the direction of the Executive Director. We are looking for House Parent Backups who can oversee the daily operations of the house while the primary House Parents are off-duty. Successful House Parent Backups must be able to provide constant resident supervision and display a willingness to enforce all the rules and guidelines set forth in the Resident Handbook.

Strongly Preferred

- Basic knowledge of first aid and safety and be able to obtain CPR certification
- One year minimum experience involving supervision of a group of teenagers, or experience of a practical nature in working with youth

Are you a good fit? (considerations for selecting the ideal candidate)

Ruth Harbor places great emphasis on teamwork and supporting each of your coworkers. We require people to be a good fit with our philosophy of how we work as a team. We need people who are hard-working, consistent, and take initiative. Listening skills and critical thinking are paramount. Open-mindedness and being comfortable in giving and receiving feedback is essential. Being flexible with change and able to work in a sometimes-chaotic environment is necessary. Especially since Ruth Harbor is faith-based, all team members must ascribe to the Ruth Harbor Statement of Faith, be committed to the sanctity of human life perspective, and be capable of maintaining a neutral stance on the question of adoption vs. parenting. Must be a committed follower of Christ and be willing to share your testimony, with gentleness and respect as in 1 Peter 3:15.
